Business Developer for Justice

LEAP — February 2025

Justice is a subscription based legal services platform that provides affordable and accessible Legal support to small businesses and entrepreneurs etc.. I was a Business Developer for them during LEAP 2025, i was promoting Justice to some of the small businesses there and offereing them a special offer for LEAP applicants in services such as Legal consultations, Contract drafting, and Company formation.

Certification for International Labour Standards

International Training Centre (ITC) — November 2024

I participated in a self guided training activity and online course supported by the International Labour Organization (ILO), that outlines the International Labour Standards that one should know before getting into any form of contract. It highlights the importance of knowing your rights and demanding for it to avoid any International Labour violations.

President of the Law Students Association

AlFaisal University — September 2023 -May 2024

I was voted as President of the Law Students Association during my junior year of college. I have worked on multiple events including debate competitions with different universities, field trips to law firms and hosted debate workshops in our University to help our members improve their debating skills.

Co- Author of “Commentary on The Energy Charter Treaty” second edition

Edited By Rafael Leal-Arcas — October 2023

Edward Elgar Published this book in October of 2023. I collaborated with my professor Rafael and some of my classmates on this amazing writing opportunity. My part was in the Introduction on the Energy Charter Treaty, I specifically wrote about the modernization process of the Energy charter Treaty, investment protection, trade, transit, and energy efficiency. Pages 7-11

King Salman Humanitarian Aid and Relief Centre

In collaboration with the UN — February 2023

I volunteered in this conference to gain knowledge about the issues in the world that require humanitarian aid and relief, there were different speakers and professionals providing solutions and fundraising for these global humanitarian issues. I wrote a summary of what the speakers were talking about and it was submitted to the royal chamber.

Member of the Community and Service Committee

AlFaisal University — August 2021 -February 2023

I was a member in the Community and Service Committee in AlFaisal University. This Committee allows us to give back and do good to our community and society, either by fundraising, blood drives, winter clothes donations, Ramadan iftar services, etc.

Member of Our Special Friends Organization

Our Special Friends Charity — September 2021-Present

This organization/ charity focuses on people with disabilities including Down syndrom, autism, schizophrenia, and more. It provides them with services and ways to be integrated into our society without discrimination. We have started an all girls football team for them, and have also provided jobs in hospitality. As well as taking them on trips to explore more of Saudis cities.

The Hague International Model United Nations

The United Nations — Jan-feb 2019 and Jan 2020

I went to the Hague Model United Nations for two years in a row during 10th grade and 11th grade. I’ve learned to overcome my old fear of public speaking and I gained confidence in myself and my abilities, I also worked as a team with people from all around the world in my committee, I wrote resolutions and made speeches about the environment and human rights. It was one of the best experiences of my life.
